Skyview Lanes held their Booster Club tournament on Sunday, March 29th. Shown below are: Aidan Brown coming in first with a +177 and Candace Laycox finishing 2nd with a +133.

Both bowlers will be going to the Provincial Finals at Stellar Lanes in Newmarket on May 23rd.

This is the first year the Booster Club Tournament has been run in Central Ontario in a long time and we are hoping our other centres will join in with Skyview in 2015-2016.

Central Ontario extends congratulations to Aaron Glover a Bantam bowler out of Georgetown's YBC who recently claimed the Ontario crown for the Four Steps to Stardom tournament. Aaron won the title with a five game total of 975, rolling games of 191, 154, 253, 211 and 166 for a 195 average.

Glover, who has been bowling since he was three, will now take on the top bowlers from the other Provinces for the Canadian title. The Canadian finals are slated for Scarborough May 2nd to May 4th.

Central Ontario wishes him well on his journey for the Canadian title.

Provincial Open Results

The results from the Provincial Open in Hamilton on Easter weekend are in. In the regular division in the singles David Biscardi finished in fourth place. Our ladies team did a great job and came in second in the stepladder winning the Silver Medal, while our Men's team came in third in the stepladder winning the Bronze medal. On another note, our Senior team finished in first place for the tournament and then came out on top for the stepladder, beating the 2nd place finishers to win the title and the Gold Medal.

In addition, our own John Mattioli wowed everyone with his footwork in the regular senior division and finished 5th to go into the stepladder. John could have put many younger men to shame by going from fifth to first to win the Gold as the Senior Singles Champion for the men.

Our congratulations to John and all the bowlers who participated in the tournament in Hamilton this Easter weekend. Also congrats go out to Hamilton Zone for winning the highest zone award, the Aggregate.
