League Executive Winners

COBA held our League Executive Tournament on Sunday, November 16th. The tournament was held at Georgetown Bowl in Georgetown. COBA's Executive were out to welcome all the bowlers. After the tournament, a light lunch was served to all the bowlers compliments of COBA.

This year the bowlers will be competing for cash prizes at the Provincial Championships being held in Hamilton, Ontario on February 21st, 2015.

Coming in first and pictured below with a +162 was Linda Watson of the Hopedale Sunday French Club

Coming in second with a +155 was COBA's own Lyall Gordon from the Georgetown UTC League.

Rounding out our winners was Chris Gordon with a +147 also from the UTC League in Georgetown

We wish all three of our winners success at the Provincial finals.

Youth Challenge Results

The 2014 Central Ontario 5 Pin Bowlers' Association Youth Challenge zone round was held on Saturday, November 29th at Hopedale Bowl in Oakville. This year 47 boys and girls aged 13 to 18 entered to compete for a spot on our Provincial teams. This is a five (5) game tournament, counting flat scores only (no handicap). The high qualifier on the boys side was Robert McDougall of Hopedale Bowl with a total score of 1355, and Sarah Styles also of Hopedale Bowl was the top girl with a score of 1087.

The above three (3) teams now advance to the Provincial Finals being held at NEB's Fun World in Oshawa on Saturday, January 10th, 2015. They will be competing against teams from all across Southern Ontario in the hopes of being declared Provincial Champions and also to earn a spot on the National Team and go on to compete at the Youth National Championships in Edmonton, Alberta in March 2015. COBA wishes all the young bowlers above good luck and good bowling.

Please see our January newsletter for the winners of the Bowling School Tournament.

Hopedale Bowl Tournament

Congratulations to Dan Pike Jr. for winning the Hopedale Bowl Strike It Rich Pot on November 20th. Dan took home over $3700.00 for his first place win.

Coaching News

If you have the old Level 2 coaching certification, you need to complete the Make Ethical Decisions (MED) and the Code of Conduct and Sports Specifics by December 31st, 2015 to keep your certification valid. You can take the MED 2 ways, online at: www.coach.ca for the cost of $85.00 or as part of an Intro to Competition course for the cost of $20.00. You can take the Code of Conduct and Sports Specifics on the C5 website: www.c5pa.ca

League Incentive Awards

A reminder to all our league secretaries that in order to qualify for this new award, you need to continue to meet your deadlines for submission. The top three (3) secretaries/statisticians will each receive a dinner for two (2) valued at $100.00.

If you have any questions regarding what is required please contact the League Awards Chair at:
