Gone But Never Forgotten

Jodi Myers, President of Central Ontario 5 Pin Bowlers' Association shown above with our Vice-President Rheel Champagne, will be leaving us shortly. The COBA Board of Directors received this information with mixed feelings. Jodi has been our leader, backbone and sounding block for most of us on the board. While we do not want to see her go, we also wish her well. Jodi will be relocating in sunny California and it is therefore with regret and envy that we say goodbye. She will always be a member of our Board and will never be forgotten. (She has also been informed that her home will have to be equipped with at least 10 bedrooms in the basement to compensate our coming to visit next winter).

COBA Hall of Fame

Once again our Hall of Fame was a huge success. With approximately 140 people in attendance it was a wonderful evening for all. The food and the Disc Jockey were both great. Our inductees were honored and our Open teams were acknowledged. We would like to thank everyone who attended for helping to make the evening one to remember. In addition, we wish all our Open teams success in Hamilton on Easter weekend.
